Trusted Employee And Mr. 'X' Plot Mammoth Swindle; World Dealers And Collectors Wary

Bruce Conde

Not satisfied with cornering the Yemen UAS (United Arab States) issue, including all of its so-called "imperforates", and the Yemen Telecommunications issue as well, Mr. "X", who now represents himself to be the czar of Yemenite stampdom, is attempting to launch what one prominent U.S. wholesaler has called "one of the rawest steals in many prominent U.S. wholesaler has called "one of the rawest steals in many a year".

Collectors and dealers who remember the last attempt (1954-55 winter) to pan off surplus old issues of Yemen with a vast array of meaningless overprints commemorating all sorts of odd anniversaries will find many similarities in the present batch.

The last attempt fizzled, in spite of its sponsor's flooding the catalogs, publications, and dealers with philatelic covers to prove that the junk was "used". It was discovered that an enterprising U. S. dealer had acquired the old stamp stock through a non-postal Yemenite official and had privately overprinted it in the United States, without any arrangement whatsoever with the Yemen Post Office.

This non-postal official, the late Prince Seif al-Islam Abdallah, was later beheaded for high treason following his April 1955 attempt to seize the throne of his brother, the Iman Ahmad.

In the stamp scandal, he took advantage of his position as Foreign Minister to order a subservient employee of the post office to cancel and forward the philatelic covers of the overprinted stamps, which had never beer issued in Yemen. After

The employee in question, who, as a former postal official of a British mandatory administration, had been prohibited by law from engaging in stamp dealing during his incumbency, asked the writer's advice on this matter. He was told that the best solution would be to set up a Philatelic Agency. The agency would take over all remaining complete sets for philatelic sales, both wholesale and retail.

Old issues, which had been selling for a premium, would continue to be sold for a premium somewhat below prevailing market prices. Lat(Continued on page 16)

Archduke Johann, a grandson of Empress Maria Theresa, was born in 1782. During the Napoleonic wars he commanded several Austrian armies, but with the coming of peace his interests shifted to social and humanitarian lines. Here his ability and accomplishments made him very popular, especially in the province of Styria in which he lived. He was a leader in progressive and democratic reforms, and in 1848 was elected by the German Parliament at Frankfurt as German Regent, which position he held until the next year.

East German Pieck Stamp Back On Sale

An item in Linn's of April 13 mentioned that the January 3 single issued by the Soviet zone of Germany to mark the 83rd birthday anniversary of the area's President Pieck was withdrawn from sale after about eight weeks. The information was supplied by O. Winter, 8, Priory Mansions, Priory Park Rd., London NWE, England, who added that no official explanation had been given for the action.

Mr. Winter now reports that — just as mysteriously — the item has again appeared on post office counters in East Germany although apparently in rather limited quantities. The "off and on" mystery remains as deep as ever, he added, explaining that as yet he had not seen a copy, but rumor has it that there has been some change in the design.

Mr. Winter further admonishes against the hurried buying of this item, until more is known officially of its status. He states bluntly that the entire pedigree of this stamp is subject to suspicion, and promises

Topical Trend Up In Albany Vicinity

In reporting that the U.S. Grand Award winner at the "FOPEX" exhibition, Albany, N.Y. was Dr. Douglas F. Green of Burlington, Vt. with his showing of pre-Civil War stamps and stampless covers, the Ft. Orange Stamp Club's secretary, Thomas F. McGrath aded some observations on the general trend in the area.

"This year," he stated, "22% of the exhibits were topical, whereas in the past the figure of this type of material had never exceeded 10%. Also, the amount of foreign material showed a definite upward trend," he added.

Particularly evident, he concluded, was the upswing in a number of hitherto "unpopular" countries, such as Bulgaria, Montenegro, Liechtenstein, early Austria, Sweden, Tuscany, and South American republics. He confirmed that as a result the amount of U. S. and British area matter displayed showed a marked decrease at the April 18-19 event.

"Prize" At HOUPEX

Mrs. E. W. Viel of the Houston (Texas) Philatelic Society reports that the club's April 24-26 "HOU-PEX" show just concluded was the most successful ever staged by the group. While her showing of "U. S. Change in Postal Rates" took the Grand Award, she explained that the real "prize" of the event went to a 17-year-old boy who was an exhibitor in last year's show.

While tearing down frames after the close of that event, young Harvey Lieberman's 1000 pruta value of the first set of Israel "just disappeared". This year, only an hour or two before the show was scheduled to open, her non-collector husband carried up a pane of glass with the suggestion that she "better have a look at whatever this is, stuck to the glass. Looks like a stamp."
Stamp it was, gleefully agreed Mrs. Viel—THE stamp, safely adhering to the glass and none the worse for its year in storage—young Lieberman's 1000p. Israel No. 9. "No show ever got off to a happier opening," she explained, "and, oh, yes; the exhibit I was mounting at the time was 'Religion on Stamps'."

Formosa Announces More Tower Stamps

The new air-letter sheet was designed by Chen Lien-hui and lithograph printed by the CEPW facility in an edition of 400,000. The design shows a four-engine plane in flight.

Medallion, New Coin From Israel

The memorial medallions prepared by the 10th Anniversary Committee of the State of Israel, will be released to dealers in this country through the Israel Philatelic Agency in America, Numismatic Division. These Medallions of Valor, to symbolize the concepts of valor as revived in modern Israel, offer tribute to the Hebrew soldier from the days of "Hasnomer" to the present. The graphic artists, Rothschild and Lippman executed the design following plans submitted to the Tenth Anniversary Committee. On one side there is the figure of the roaring lion in Tel Hai, and the inscription, "For the Builders, every one has his sword girded by his side" (Nehemiah IV, 12) in both Hebrew and English. The other side bears the Zahal emblem of a sword with an olive branch twisted around it and the legend, "Pence be within thy walls" (Psalms CXXII, 7) also in both languages.

The lettered edge of the medals features the caption, "State of Isra-

The lettered edge of the medals features the caption, "State of Israel" and the state emblem. The bronze medalion is 60mm in diameter, and the silver one 35mm.

The Israeli authorities have also The Israeli authorities have also announced that in order to facilitate quick identification of proof specimens of Iraeli coins, the proof of the new 5 Pound coin honoring the Ingathering of the Exiles will have on it a special mark. The Hebrew letter "M" will appear only on the proof. The regular uncirculated specimens of the coming coin will not bear this mark.

Correcting A Misunderstanding

Some weeks ago I made a statement in this column in which I said that the FBI had examined some of the supposed counterfeit UN 1½c Precancels and that they had examined them in their laboratory and had pronounced them counterfeit; that they had examined the ink by taking scrapings from the two different stamps and had found that the ink was different.

Recently, an agent of the FBI called on me and inquired as to where I had obtained such information. He then went on to explain that the FBI never gave out information of any kind to anyone except the very highest Government Officials who might be concerned with the matter in question. That the FBI made it a policy of being only a fact finding organization and that such facts as they found were reported only to those fact finding organization and that such facts as they found were reported only to those who were entitled to have them. In other words the FBI is very jealous of its reputation and has built its strength on its iron-bound manner of operating. If such a report had been made the man to whom it was made was obligated to keep the information to himself and not to divulge it to the public.

This conference with the FBI man led me to believe that I might possibly have been mistaken due to a misunderstanding of what was said to me. If such is the case I respect for the operation of the FBI even tho at times I wonder why they have never been able to catch and punish any of the many persons who want to get the matter straigh ened out at once. I have a great of the respect for the operation of the FBI even tho at times I wonder why they have never been able to catch and punish any of the many persons who have been having a heyday in stealing stamps from collectors and dealers, and seeing that they are properly punished.

However that is another matter and I want to write now regarding the misunderstanding about which I started out this editorial.

Last November, after we had published in this paper the statement that the UN Precancels were counterfeited, I spent some time with Mr. R. Tvedt, Chief of the UN Postal Service in New York, also with Mr. Carl Fein, a U. S. Post Office Inspector at his office in the Main Post Office in New York City. I spent two afternoons with Mr. Fein and he had many specimens of the UN Precancel stamp in his office. Many were of the Lithographed Printing. I believe he was fully convinced that these lithograph prints were counterfeits. I inquired about what he was doing from every angle. I even asked if the FBI had taken any interest in the case as I considered the counterfeiting of this precancel as being equivalent to the counterfeiting of any U. S. postage stamp. We talked for quite a while and during the conversation Mr. Fein stated that the laboratory in Washington had examined the stamps, that they had taken scrapings of the ink from different ones, and that they were able to determine among other things that the ink on the known genuine stamps and on the supposed counterfeit stamps was different. Other points of difference were also mentioned.

It was my understanding and belief when I left Mr. Fein that he had and on the supposed counterfeit stamps was different. Other points of difference were also mentioned.

It was my understanding and belief when I left Mr. Fein that he had meant by speaking of the laboratory in Washington, that the FBI had made these tests and examinations.

Now since the agent of the FBI has called on me and explained their attitude in matters of this nature I am of the belief that I misunderstood Mr. Fein in that instead of it being the FBI who had made the examinations, he meant that the laboratory of the Post Office Department in Washington, had done the work.

This then should clear up the matter as I certainly would not have made a statement that the FBI had done this work unless I had believed that to be a fact. It is therefore unquestionably a case of misunderstanding and I am very glad to correct it by this announcement.

Philatelic Foundation Says There Are Counterfeit UN Precancels

Linn's Weekly Stamp News announced this fact in its issue featuring the ASDA National Postage Stamp Show last November. Since that time it has been kicked around by many different parties, many of whom insisted that there were no counterfeits. It apparently was called to the attention of the Philatelic Foundation months ago and after a period of time the Foundation has issued a statement upholding what we said last November. last November.

last November.

The statement by the Foundation shows clearly that they have taken the long way around to come to their final conclusion. We readily admit the fact that in perhaps the greatest number of cases where there has been a counterfeiting of an overprint on a stamp, that the method they used in examining these UN Precancels is perhaps the most accurate and the best method of proceedure.

However in this case with the great amount of material available for

However in this case, with the great amount of material available for examination it was a great waste of time. We were able to tell at a glance that the stamps we pronounced as counterfeits, were counterfeit, and any man fully familiar with letterpress and offset printing could have done the same thing that the Foundation has done after much study and examination.

The next problem however is to discover the source of these fakes The next problem however is to discover the source of these fakes and we hope that this can be done altho we doubt very much if it will be done. There are those that seem to believe it was an inside job. Certainly if the UN Postal Chief and the U.S. Post Office Inspectors have any authority under which they work it should be possible for them to accuse every dealer who was selling such stamps of retailing counterfeits and in that manner cause them to reveal from whom they got them and thus trace them back to their source. We doubt however if this will be done

ATA Offers Topical Award Certificates

For the best topical exhibit in all stamp exhibitions, anywhere in the world, the American Topical Assn. has prepared a brand new artistic award certificate on parchment paper. Using attractive modern type faces and twelve panels of beautiful artwork by artist Robert S. Oesch, these awards are certainly distinctive. They show designs taken from actual topical stamps.

The ATA "Best in Topical Awards" certificates have been given since 1955 with the total increasing every year to over 100 award presentations annually. The original award was designed by Jean Van Noten, famed American designer of many Belgian stamps. Supplies of this award will soon be exhausted and the new Oesch-designed certificate will be put into use.

Any stamp club can obtain this

Any stamp club can obtain this award if it has a section for topicals. Responsible club officials can obtain full details by sending a stamped addressed envelope to Homer L. Jones, ATA Awards Chairman, R-252 Derby St.. Johnstown, Pa. There is no charge for this award, it is a public service of the American Topical Assn.

New AM-86 Service At Appleton Delayed

North Central Airlines service which was originally scheduled to begin operations at Appleton, Wis. April 26 has been delayed indefinite-ly, according to information sup-plied by Erik L. Madisen, of that Wisconsin city. Wisconsin city.

The difficulty revolves around the demands of the Civil Aeronautics Board that the airline serve additional cities and the carrier's argument that this extra service would create operating losses. Accordingly, the problem must be ironed out between the CAB and North Central officials.

The next possible starting date for the service would be July 1, according to a company spokesman, although the actual beginning of operations is not definitely set for this date. Indications are that collectors' covers sent to the Appleton postmaster for servicing on the flight are being held, against its eventual take-off.

Hope which some of us had that the Citizens Stamp Advisory Com-mittee would keep a sensible conmittee would keep a sensible control on the number of commemoratives issued in any one year, takes another trouncing. I refer specifically to the announcement of a 4c stamp to note the 100th Anniversary of the Discovery of Silver at the Comstock Lode in Nevada. This patch of paper is to come June 4 at Virginia City, Nevada. The fact that the POD has made such a late announcement, relatively, indicates that here again for political reasons, or out and out another label will be born.

I don't argue whether the commemoration is a worthwhile one or not. I am certain that other events equally as important, and some much more so, were shunted off without a stamp. This partiality and unfairness in the selection of commemorations is the objectionable part, not the fact that a suitable one has been chosen.

able one has been chosen.

I have always felt that we should not be tied down to a definite quantity — that the issuing program depend on the worthiness of thiceas. However, there should be considerable restraint, something which apparently is now gone altogether.

For a while the Summerfield administration of the Department was quite conservative and selective. The opposite is now true. Just like the Democrats votes seem to count more than integrity. The Advisory Committee is less and less useful all the time. They can only operate when political expediency doesn't get in the way.

No wonder some of them spend time at stamp itself. The coil strip has to be cut far off center.

Considering the fact that a coil plate number should actually not exist under any circumstances, that those which do are accidentally protext in the collection of such items. I have seen some rather ine collections devoted to just coils — the result of ceaseless hunting, and a fair amount of cash. Just the other day an out of town collector dropped in to show me his progress in this difficult specialty. It has taken him lots of time and money, but he apparently is reasonably well supplied with both. He even had duplicates.

How do you get coil strips show someone who has them to sell. Other than that you would buy rolls and rolls and rolls of them at your post office hoping you might find a number.

Most of you should have seen the World Peace Through World Trade commem by now. The most striking touch is the color which in my book is a dandy. The design is simple enough but it wouldn't amount to a hill of beans without the wording. Something again, like the Dental stamp, which without the words, is general.

This commem does make a good appearance and should be rated as one of the better POD efforts for 1959. You might not agree that such a sticker was necessary — I frankly feel that it wasn't — but at least it doesn't hurt the eyes.

The NATO commem seems to be acceptable to most, while the Arctic Exploration one does not have very many backers considering it a good artistic effort. It is awful junky —

In a letter the other day came the question, "Must I include the numbers assigned to coil stamps to have a complete plate block collection?" So that we start off on the right foot, let it be realized that what does and does not comprise completeness has many interpretations. Whatever you collect, let it conform to your taste and pocketbook. In a to your taste and pocketbook. Usually it is not much, but if one knows the numbers assigned to the printing of that stamp he is able to make out what he has with reasonable accuracy about 95 per cent of the time. b) In very rare instances an almost whole plate number has been found but when that happened, little remained of the stamp itself. From this you might get the impression that coil plate numbers are in the scarce class, which they definitely are. Being scarce, they command prices in the several bucks, which fact discourages all but the most hardy, financially, from pursuing them. So while they are not easy to come by, there are few who collect them, which in turn keeps the price tags off of Cloud 9.

In the most recent editions of the Bureau Specialist, official organ of the Bureau Issues Assn., George W. This same Mr. Brett covered the various "miscues" found on the Whooping Crane commem in the above-mentioned magazine in its most recent appearance. Most of the miscues had been covered in the U. S. The well-known British stamp firm, Robson Lowe Ltd., has pub-lished its annual review for 1957-58. An analysis of the facts and figures

An analysis of the facts and figures contained therein gives further proof that philately is in an exceedingly healthy state.

The year under review, from September 1, 1957 to August 31, 1958 has broken all records with a total turnover of 307,341 Pounds Sterling ($860,500). The greatest proportion of this total was realized through 116 auction sales of stamps, postal history and philatelic literature.

Of this amount, $339,900 worth of materials was purchased by dealers and collectors in 64 foreign countries which indicates considerable international interest.

Also announced for June release is a 5c commemorative in honor of the Royal Visit. June 18 is the date of issue and first day cover collectors must have their covers forwarded to arrive not later than June 16. The Postmaster General pointed out that this is the third occasion on which the issue of commemorative stamps has marked the visit to Canada of a reigning sovereign. Three special stamps were issued in 1939 at the time of the Royal Visit of the late King George VI and Queen Elizabeth, the Queen Mother In 1957 when Queen Elizabeth and Prince Philip arrived in Canada for the first time after her coronation, the postal tribute was a 5c stamp portraying the profiles of the Royal Couple taken from a photograph by Karsh of Ottawa. # Of Revenue Sections

Since the illustration of United States revenue stamps is no longer illegal, it is expected that revenue stamp collecting will experience a strong surge in popularity. The lifting of the ban came as especially good news to the world's largest revenue stamp collectors' society. The American Revenue Assn., 1 East End Ave., New York 21, N. Y.

East End Ave., New York 21, N. Y.
This organization was formed in 1947 and has had over 700 stamp collectors as members. The n e w membership roster issued this month gives a good example of which revenue stamps are the most popular. There are 197 members listed as interested primarily in U. S. revenues. Second are the State Revenues, with 63 members listed. Then come Match and Medicine stamps with 50 collectors, Taxpaids 43, Canada 38, and general foreign 35.

The balance of the revenue groups are divided as follows: Precanceled US. revenue stamps 18, U. S. Possessions 16, Great Britain and Colonies 12, Mexico 9, France and Colonies 7, Argentina 6, Balkan States 5, and Germany and Colonies 5. Many other countries are also listed, but with no more than four collectors each.

Thus it is seen that the field offers wide and varied interests, with some phase for everyone. Collectors wanting to learn more of the revenue section of collecting may write the Association in New York for additional details. tional details.

Arab Petroleum Stamp Is Topical

Bruce Conde

Additional information about the Additional information about the First Arab Petroleum Congress commemorative stamp issued in Cairo April 16 by the UAR Post Office Department, has been released by Maj. Mohamed I. Sobhi. The color is blue, and the denomination 10 mils, for internal first-class letter nostage. postage.

The Major, who asks that he merely be referred to as "Office Manager" of the Minister of Communications' Cabinet instead of as Technical Director, based on a more practical interpretation of his Arabic title, says that approval was secured to up the issue to a million and a half copies instead of the former million maximum. This is due to increased demand for UAR commemoratives. Recent issues of a million only have been sold out in a matter of days and orders for tens of thousands of additional copies could not be filled by the Post Office.

The central part of the new adhesive's design is a circle in which is seen a map of the Arab World's oil-producing regions and an oil pipe line, with an oilwell derrick rising out of the circle toward the top of the stamp. At the top of the circle is superimposed the badge of the Arab League, which is sponsoring the congress.

This is the same device which are

This is the same device which appeared on Lebanon's 1957 Arab Olympic Games sports topicals: the League's title, in orange Arabic calligraphy, enclosed within a crescent and surrounded by a laurel weath.

The bilingual country name occupies the top of the stamp, with "1959" reading downwards in both Arabic and foreign figures on each side. Beneath the circle is another bilingual inscripton reading "First side. Beneath the circle is bilingual inscription reading "Firs Congress, Cairo" bilingual inscription reading "First Arab Petroleum Congress, Cairo". Lower right and left corners contain the denomination, with the tiny Arabic word "Barid" (Post) between them. The very fine Arabic lettering inside the circle, which will require a magnifying glass to read, is in three parts: 1) right to left, at the bottom; 2) reading up, on the right; and 3) reading down, on the left.

The translation is: 1) "Cairo, April, 1959"; 2) "The League of Arab States"; and 3) "First Arab Petroleum Congress".
Most of this information duplicates what has already been displayed in larger print elsewhere on the stamp in both English and Arabic. We may accordingly suppose that the circle and all it contains and the Arab League badge at the top constitute the official poster or badge or symbol of the Congress, used on its stationery and propagan-or badge or symbol of the Congress, used on its stationery and propaganda, and that the design was lifted, intact, and transferred to the stamp, regardless of the fact that the rest of the stamp design duplicated most of the Arabic information inscribed on the circle.

The event noted is of much greater world-wide importance than those honored on other recent UAR commemoratives. It will not be primarily of interest to newsmen and topicalists. The great oil cartels and western governments to whom Arab oil is of vital importance; the great oil consumers of western Europe who base much of their industry on near-at-hand Middle East oil

Iraq is a significant Arab oil producer. It is also the potential starting point of some important Arab-owned and operated pipe lines to the Mediterranean which the League states hope to build to step up the flow of oil parallel to American and British owned pipe lines now in operation.

Knowing that atomic and possi-bly solar energy will challenge the supremacy of oil in the near future, the Arabs believe in "making hay while the sun shines" and this is whey they were holding their pe-troleum congress at this time.

supplies; and the Soviet bloc, anxious to spot and exploit any new Mid-East difficulties for their western rivals, will all have their eyes on this all-Arab show. Internally, the Arabs envision it as the first step toward an overall, coordinated Arab Oil Authority, with a uniform policy, eventually directed toward pooling oil income for pan-Arab development projects. It is for that reason that certain Arab states were making feverish efforts to bridge over Iraqi-UAR differences before the Congress date. quest.

$105,000 Sales; $35,000 Profit

HOW IT WAS ACCOMPLISHED.

by Alfred B. Fahsing.

At Last! A book that tells you all you need to know to begin and successfully operate a business of your own. This is not a "how to" book: this book tells you in detail HOW WE DID IT. We hold nothing back, as you must have all the facts to succeed. Our business is STAMPS—by mail order. From a small beginning on a part-time basis and with practically no capital, this book explains in detail how our mail order stamp business has expanded into its present full time operation and profitable enterprise of more than $105,000. gross sales, and $35,000. profit. This figure is rising rapidly as each mail arrives.

Many days we take $100 from the mail in just a few hours. You can do it too, by following our easy methods. With as little as 100 post cards and a few stamps which you may now have in your collection you can start on your way to $105,000 as soon as you read this fascinating book. Even if you are not a stamp collector or dealer you can easily apply our methods to most any type of mail order business.

Established mail order dealers are buying this book for comparison with their records as our financial statements are included showing expenses, cost and profits. We also include copies of two form letters which alone bring us thousands of extra dollars yearly; a list of 51 of the best wholesale and trade magazines in the U. S.; a list of 63 wholesalers in 32 the state of the profit of the best wholesale and trade magazines in the U. S.; a list of 63 wholesalers in 32 the profit of 63 wholesalers in 32 the 32 the profit of 63 wholesalers in 32 the profit of 63 wholesale countries; complete information on how to use mailing lists and buy collections; plus the answers to 56 questions most often asked by stamp dealers:

Why be tied down to a routine job all your life? We will prove in this book that you can set your own hours for work and play and take your vacation WHEN IT SUITS YOU, and best of all BE YOUR OWN BOSS. You can work from a desk in your own home, thus eliminating costly overhead, and you need little or no capital. Your business will grow on its PROFITS. It can be done — WE HAVE DONE IT.

If we had the benefit of such a book when we started, our profits would be even greater, as the trade secrets we reveal cost us thousands of dollars to discover. Here you have the benefit of our experience and you can avoid most of the heartaches and headaches of the "trial and error" method.

Even If you do not intend to become a dealer this book will help you with your stamp collecting. It shows how much profit is made when you buy stamps, and it tells you which stamps not to buy.

we will send you this amazing book for ONLY $2.00. It could change your whole life. The information contained is worth much much more, but we are offering it to a few special prospects at the very low price of $2.00. ACT NOW — you will never regret it. Mail the coupon to us today, and of course we guarantee a full refund within 3 days if you are not satisfied.

Notes From

The Italian Area

Pierson Ostrow

Italy, having announced a "formal" stamp issuing program for 1959, is keeping the public confused by releasing — in rapid succession— a series of stamps for which no prior announcements were made. The latest in this group is a 15 Lire black stamp in honor of the "Byron Celebration", regarding which no word has yet reached this correspondent.

St. Francis' Anniversary Passes Unnoted — Italy may have lost one good excuse for a commemorative stamp when it let pass unnoted the 750th anniversary of the founding of the Franciscan Order. Perhaps it felt that it had done its part back in 1926, when it issued a set of six adhesives to mark the 700th anniversary of the death of St. Francis, and then reissued the set in overprinted form for six of its Colonies.

The stamp was placed in use on April 21. It reproduces a statue of the poet, with the legend, "Celebrazione di Byron" at the upper left. Engraving is by Columbati and V. Nicastro. The item is printed in panes of 50 on unwatermarked paper, without sheet margin inscriptions of any kind.

George Noel Gordon, Lord Byron, spent considerable time in Italy from which he made excursions to the Greek Islands. It was during his stay in Pisa that he developed his close friendship with another great English poet, Shelley.

That War Veterans' Stamp—Meanwhile, it is now possible to fill in some of the background of the War Veterans' commem which appeared April 13. It notes the Eighth General Assembly of the World Veterans' rommem which appeared April 13. It notes the Eighth General Assembly of the Blinded Veterans' Rederation, which was held at the Palazzo dei Congressi in the suburbs of Rome. The Federation, organized in 1950, represents twenty million "ex-combatants" in 36 different countries.

The Assembly was attended by 350 delegates and observers. American affiliates are the AMVETS, the Blinded Veterans' Assn., the AVC and the DAV. One of the activities endorsed by the assembly was presented by Harold Russell, the amputee who played the prize winning role in the motion picture, "The Best Years of Our Lives".

Swiss 1959 Pro Patria Set To Show Fossil And Minerals In Multicolored Printing Display

June 1 has been designated by Switzerland as day of issue for that nation's new series of Pro Patria stamps. The set will be five in number, according to Jacques Minkus of the Swiss Philatelic Agency in America, New York City.

America, New York City.

This year the designs will feature in full color various interesting minerals, rocks and fossil on all except the low value which will depict the globe and two Swiss flags. This 5c plus 5c item will symbolize the fact that the Swiss people have settled in all corners of the world.

The 10c plus 10c green, orangered and brown stamp features agate, a mineral occurring at Ponte Tresa in the canton of Ticino, Switzerland near the well-known spa of Bad Ragaz.

The 20c plus 10c red, bluish green, yellow and gray item shows

The 20c plus 10c red, bluish green, yellow and gray item shows tourmaline crystals, a mineral of various colors found in the granite zones of the Gotthard massif in Binntal, Switzerland. Tourmaline is also found in some valleys of the Grisons and in Ticino.

The 30c plus 10c brown, bluish violet and gray commem depicts amethyst crystals, a kind of violet quartz, which changes to yellow, when heated. It is found in numerous regions of Switzerland. The origin of the word amethyst is of special interest. It comes from the discovered in a sandstone stratum at Oehningen on the Untersee in Holland by Johann Jakob Scheuch-zer (1672-1733), a naturalist from Zurich, Switzerland. He was, however, unable to recognize the animal and named the fossil "Homo diluvii testis" which translates, "man who witnessed the deluge."

Two stamp dealers have their shops in the Arcade. One of them had a fine display of Italian material in his window. It appeared to have onlookers at all times. Yes, stamps interest people.

The other stamp and coin dealer located in the Arcade had the window full of Italian coins, medals and the like. Future countries will be represented by stamps. This window too was well attended by onlookers.

Editor 1.25 Linn's Weekly Stamp News:

Stamps commemorating historical events were perhaps the best—the Alaska Statehood, NATO, Arctic Exploration, 1c Lincoln, Lincoln-Douglas Debates, IGY, Conservation series, Overland Mail, and Oregon. A few British and Swedish covers added variety. Several students stopped after class to add comments on them.

Stamps have a real place in the classroom; further, they can be used effectively with but moderate preparation. In my trial I found the students eager to see them at close range, thus the covers were passed around (with a word about careful handling of anything that is a "collector's item").

The youngsters asked questions lector's item'').

The youngsters asked questions about the value of stamps, how old was my oldest one, and so on, and commented on how much could be learned by collecting stamps.

There are several subjects in which stamps can be employed effectively to enrich the classroom assignments. Especially good use can be made of them in teaching science, art, geography, civics, mathematics — to name a few.

One does not have to be a philate-

One does not have to be a philate-list to use them, since public libraries usually carry books on some phase of collecting. Also, one can find a stamp collector without looking too far in almost any direction camps on its list.

The project is sponsored by the American Stamp Dealers Assn. and the Grand Street Boys Assn., New York. Material may be delivered or mailed to the organization at 2122 Wallace Ave., New York 62, N. Y.

at any time!

I have also found scenic cards from far and near very useful in the classroom to illustrate events, especially of historical nature such as the Lost Colony of Manteo Island, for example. Every geography teacher should welcome the use of stamps in teaching that subject.

It covers such a wide area that innumerable topical stamps can be utilized at various times. It might be added that a study of many of the available philatelic seals would be helpful, too.

Naturally, student response will not be the same in every instance, but stamps are certainly recommend them to others in my profession, collector and "non" alike. For the latter a bit of browsing in a stamp catalog or stamp paper would afford much information and many leads for aiding and improving their teaching.

Sincerely, Edwin O. Koch, Jr.

New Nations Of The World And Stamp Collecting

Samuel P. Delisi

The march to freedom throughout the world has had an important effect on stamp collecting. Since the end of World War II less than 14 years ago, 21 nations have become independent.

In the region of Asia, from 1946 through 1950, the Philippines, India, Pakistan, Burma, Ceylon, Korea, and Indonesia attained independence, while in the Mid-East, Jordan and Israel became new nations. The independence of Libya in North Africa was proclaimed in 1951.

Then in 1954 and 1955, again in Asia, Cambodia, Laos and Viet Nam, formerly parts of French Indo-China, be c a me sovereign states; and in 1957, the independent Federation of Malaya came into being. Finally, in the recent period 1955-58, a great surge of nationalism swept Africa; the new countries being the Sudan, Morocco, Tunisia, Ghana, Togo, and French Guinea.

The total population of the new nations is estimated at 691,890,000 persons or 26 percent of the world total. Their land area aggregates 500,499 square miles.

Reflecting the great world wide interest ir stamp collecting, these newcomers to the family of nations have given much attention to postal needs and the issuance of stamps. This article will briefly review the situation, emphasizing the issues which commemorate independence. References are to the 1959 Scott's Stamp Catalogue.

This post-war history of independence.

This post-war history of independence begins with the Philippines and the Irish Free State. The United and the Irish Free State. The United States granted the Philippines semiindependence prior to World War II.
They became completely independent on July 4, 1946. See Scott Nos.
500-2, 512-14, 547-49, and 621-23.
After a long and tortuous struggle, the Irsh Free State severed all connections with the British Crown on April 17, 1949 (Nos. 139-40).
In the Mid-East, the British mandate in Jordan ended when on March 22, 1946 the British recognized the complete independence of the Hashemite Kingdom. (Nos.

the Hashemte Kingdom. (Nos. 221-29 and 236-44).

Of critical importance was the proclamation of the independent state of Israel when the British terminated their mandate of Palestine on May 14, 1948. Israel has issued numerous independence commemoratives (Nos. 33-34, 46-47, 62-64, 73, 84-85, 93, 119, 128, and 142). Meanwhile, in Asia, Mahatma Gandhi was forging the freedom of India. Contrary to his wish for a united India and principally because of violent religious differences, the former Indian Empire was divided into two nations, India and Pakistan, power being transferred from the British on August 15, 1957.

See Nos. 200-2 for India and Scott Nos. 20-23 and 63-64 for Pakistan. Both nations have remained sovereign units within the British Ceylon, an island off the southeast coast of India, closely followed the Indian course. Pursuant to a bill the indian course. Fursuant to a bill for self government passed by the British Parliament shortly before the beginning of World War II, Ceylon became an independent nation within the British Commonwealth on February 4, 1948 (Nos. 296-303).

On the Asian mainland, Burma, once a British colony, went a different way. Intensely nationalistic, its legislature declared it a republic on June 17, 1947, and the formal transfer of sovereignty took place on January 4, 1948 (Nos. 136-38). It is no longer affiliated with the British Commonwealth.

Unusual Reentry In New "CC Philatelist"

The lead article in the March issue of "The Collectors Club Philatelist" is an absorbing story of the 5c entry on the 6c "Small Queen" plate of Canada. While the reentering of a line engraved plate was common practice, the finding in 1931 of a peculiar reentry on the Canada 6c and culiar reentry on the Canada 6c and the later discovery in 1943 that it was a reentry of another value, the 5c, created considerable interest.

Many articles were written on the with a subject, some rather misleading. Winthrop S. Boggs has written for the CCP what he refers to as "a progress report"; it is however "a progress report" that would appear to have been carried to a definite conclusion. conclusion.

Also including in this interesting issue is the concluding portion of the Mueller Catalog of Pre-Stamp Postmarks of Austria.

Other co.tents are book reviews, the "Clubhouse" (reporting on the past three meetings), and an edi-torial questioning the exhibition of international gold medal collections for competition at regional exhi-bitions. bitions

Copies of the 68-page number are available from The Collectors Club, 22 E. 35th St., New York 16, N. Y. for $2; a year's subscription (6 issues) is $10.

Capitol U.S. Album Offered By Grossman

The newly published "Capitol U. S. Album" of the Grossman Stamp Co. of New York is one of the very first to take advantage of the new Federal law permitting full-size pictures of all stamps. Accordingly, the new album shows every stamp—regular, commem, airs, even revenues—in actual size for easy identification.

The 144 pages are of heavy stock, printed on one side only, with extra printed on one side only, with extra clear and sharp pictures of every stamp. Additional decorations are of appropriate design and tasteful atmosphere. Suitable illustrations apart from the stamps show watermark differences; the assorted "secret marks" and other inconspicuous variations which distinguish certain stamps. Other than this, captions are held to a strict minimum.

Dealer Doings

Jacob Habib, 154 Nassau St., New York 38, N. Y. who specializes in a wide assortment of foreign catalogs and similar literature along with his established stamp trade, is offering an interesting one page price list of specials. There some close-out offers on certain Gibbons catalogs and particularly attractive prices on sets of several European countries can be found.

Classified advertiser W. W. Kennell, Box 1612, Wenatchee 7, Wash. who has been offering facsimiles of Confederate currency in the "Confederate" columns, has reduced his prices to really bargain figures. He emphasizes that these are not the original productions, but are excellent likenesses in full color of the 95-year-old bills from $10 to $10,000 in denomination.

Earl P. L. Apfelbaum, 1416 S. Penn Sq., Philadelphia, Pa. and his wife plan a June-July tour and buying trip south and west as far as Texas, New Mexico, Arizona, and all of Mexico. Persons in the areas concerned who would like to see Mr.
Apfelbaum on the way should contact him promptly to permit final arrangements and setting a mutually satisfactory date.

Carlos Lenze, proprietor of El Centro Filatelico, Barquillo 29, Madrid, Spain, who offers stamps and Spanish first day covers in the classified columns, offers a free price list of FDC's of Spain, Morocco and Tangier. He also mentions that the set of Spain's Velasquez stamps on maximum cards is priced correctly at $5, and not at the improper lower figure in a recent ad.

"The approval dealer isn't AL-WAYS wrong," laments L. H. Mc-Queston, 13544 Woodward Ave., Queston, 13544 Woodward Ave., Highland Park 3, Mich. He and certain dealers who offer approvals on five days examination with the advertised statement that "you pay return postage" occasionally find a collector who doesn't read all of their ads. Collectors must accept all parts—or none—of such offers.

Ron Lusardi of Woodbury Rd., Woodbury, L. I., N. Y. who is a consistent advertiser of many varieties of British Commonwealth reports that he has just purchased an especially fine lot in this field which he is now offering to Linn's readers, It is competitively priced, he states, adding that he has many items in too short supply to mention, and invites want lists.

It's moving day in Flushing, N. Y. for popular stamp dealer Alvin J. Fairbrook. He is removing both his rairbrook. He is removing both fils office and his home to new quarters, but his mailing address will remain the same, Box 751, Flushing, L. I., N. Y. Also, area collectors who have been using the phone to reach him will continue using the old number. The office will be closed May 15 through June 15. 15 through June 15.

While the "special offers" classified ad of Sheldon Flateman, 28 Firethorne Lane, Valley Stream, N. Y. in the April 27 Linn's "read well", it still didn't sound right to experienced collectors—or to Mr. Flateman. A single line of just six words was accidentally omitted between lines four and five which made a big difference. Collectors will find the correction in this issue.

Some very interesting-and very Some very interesting—and very pertinent—information on the precancel field is contained in the April 1959 issue of "Precancel News" offered free by the Gunesch Precancel House, Inc., 30 W. Washington St., Chicago 2, Ill. Two salient items are a discussion on the upswing of precancel popularity, and another on the basis of catalog pricings.

This fourth section is a saddle stitched, paper-bound offering of 68 pages 534 x 814 in size. The language is German. The price is $1.65 postpaid; 15c extra for registration if desired. The third section is quoted at the same figure, while Part II is $1.40 and Part I, $1.15.

No mention was made of the "X" monopolistic control of the entire stock, or that anything unethical in philately would be perpetrated.

The balance of the UAS set, finished by the Survey of Egypt in early April, was—so far as Cairo was concerned—supposed to be picked up and delivered to Yemen, along with the main stock of the already-issued 40p. value, by the employee in question. There is little question but that it will find its way to Mr. "X" first, as did a reputed 5000 "imperforates" of each, without any of them ever having seen Yemen.

The official declined to take this advice. It seemed he had in mind some more private arrangements which would bring more than the normal "10 per cent over face" agents' handling profit for supplying mint stamp stock to dealers abroad. He then mentioned the name of Mr. "X", whom, it seemed, he had met in Beirut, Lebanon.

He asked if it would not be a good idea to cooperate with the latter in order to make larger profits. He was told of the "X" record for speculative dealings in Lebanese and Syrian stamps and of the disrepute he had brought upon postal officials and upon himself and Middle East dealers who associated with him by his unethical "deals".

The employee was warned against having anything to do with Mr. "X" him by his unethical "deals".

The employee was warned against having anything to do with Mr. "X" in an official capacity. This advice, too, he declined to accept, and he has cooperated with Mr. "X" on an increasing scale since that date.

Previous Yemen Deals by Mr. "X"

— The first evidence of this collaboration came with his securing a quantity of the scarce Yemen airletter sheets. He had promised a reputable Beirut dealer to deliver a stock of these to the latter as soon as they were released from the vaults, and had accepted payment in advance for same On releasing the stock to Mr. "X" on an exclusive basis, instead (whereupon the sheets were sold for several hunsheets were sold for several hun-dred per cent over face), the Beirut dealer took steps to secure his rights through legal action, which is now

It was not intended that the set should be available or have first day in the Yemen post offices until Mr. "X" had sold all the trade would bear at his own prices. own prices.

By accident, a few hundred sets leaked out to a reputable dealer, who sold at the normal dealers' profit. Mr. "X" howled to the high heavens about "unethical prac-

Third evidence of the employee's monopolist monopolist Third evidence of the employee's collaboration with the monopolist was in connection with this past winter's disposal of a "new Yemen issue" on an exclusive basis by Mr. "X". When wholesalers who have tried to get the stamps from Yemen they found that they were only three values of a rejected official set of 1951 which had already been issued (and written up in the stamp press) years earlier.

To prevent any competition, the 1 bogshah low value was declared "not available" in post office stock. Dealers then lost interest in the other two (5 and 10 bogash) values.

The balance, however, except for a nominal quantity insufficient to meet a quarter of advance orders on hand in the Taiz General Post Office, was placed by the employee at the disposal of Mr. "X" in Damas-cus. Mr. "X" announced himself to the philatelic world as the sole pur-

The idea was to let him dispose of whatever the trade would bear at his prices until he had no further

It is not known if any of these "inverted overprints" materialized, but this would not be surprising under the circumstances.

Now we get down to the gruesome details of what was overprinted, the details of same, and the quantities

We have before us a number of we have before us a number of copies of a circular issued by Mr. "X" in anticipation of the "grand overprint deal". These circulars reached the writer from various irate U. S. wholesale dealers and from publications. Dossier of Mutilated Stamp Stock

1) Human Rights, 4 values (8, 13, 20bg. and 1 'Imadi) of the 1940 (Waterlow) set (Scott's Nos. 38, 40, 42, 43), overprinted in the quantity of 10,000 "sets".

2) 40th Anniversary of the first Yemen stamp, 6 values (8, 10, 14, 18, 20bg. and 1 'Imadi (Nos. 38, 39, 40, 42, 43), 10,000 "sets".

It is interesting to speculate why the "40th Anniversary" is being honored, for this memorable occasion will not be due until 1966! Is it possible that our benefactors, in this instance, are as ignorant of Yemen's philatelic history as they appear to be of the ethics of philately in general?

he of the ethics of pintately in general?

3) Automatic telephone inauguration at Sana'a 1959, 5 values (6, 8, 10, 20bg. and 1 'Imadi). This is said to be overprinted on the 1930 set (Nos. 8, 10, 13, 16, 19, 22), but this is undoubtedly a misrepresentation, for two reasons: first, there is no 8bg. value in the 1930 set: second, this is a vastly undercatalogued set and is quite scarce, selling for about $10 at the Sana'a post office today. It is probable that the 1931 set, parts of which may still be had at face, is what was overprinted. This would mean Nos. 17, 18, 20, 21, and 23.

The event commemorated is also curious. Yemen's first automatic telephone was inaugurated in late 1957 in Taiz, not in Sana'a. In '58 the system was installed in Hodeida, and later in Sana'a, which is not the capital but a sleepy provincial city. Anyway, the event was judged by the "X"-employee combination to be worth "10,000 sets" of overprints.

4) 11th Anniversary of Ascension of King Ahmed, 4 values, probably overprinted on the same stock as the telephone set except for the 20bg., although it is advertised as on the "1930 set", 10,000 sets. The celebration of enthronement of the Imam has come and gone, and nobody heard of any commemorative set in connection with the event.

5) 1958 airmail set, 3 values, (6 and 10bg. and 1 'Imadi), said to be on 1930 stock, but probably '31, as above; 8,000 "sets". As in the U.S., airmail adhesives are not necessary to prepay airmail postage, and, in fact, over 90 per cent has always been prepaid by non-airmail adhesives. The event commemorated is also cal registry stamp. In 1958 there were sufficient 6bg, stamps of various vintages on hand (including both the APU and current "Coffee tree" ones) to take care of postal needs, and there was no need, nor is there now, for a special airmail set.

6) 1959 airmail set 4 values same

6) 1959 airmail set, 4 values, same stamps as for the "1958" set plus the 8bg. value; same remark as to usefulness; 10,000 "sets".

The wholesale asking price per 10,000 sets (less 2000 "1958" airmails") is at the unit price of $13.80 per complete assortment of 26 values, or, at a mere $125,000 or so to the lucky buyer!

Examination of the prices asked with relation to face reveals that around 75 per cent over face is being asked, wholesale. As the PO was prepared to sell at less than face in order to get rid of the stuff, we wonder what percentage of face would eventually reach the PO from these sales, if effected.

Also the most numerous items to these sales, if effected.

Also, the most numerous items to be overprinted include 30,000 each of values found among the "looted" stamp stock of the 1940 set which have been selling for one-tenth catalog in the states recently — one wonders what possibility of getting some of this stock at a small fraction of face and overprinting it to sell at 75 per cent over face might have occurred to the promoters!

Now comes the pay off:

Dealers Balk — Big wholesale dealers have directly and indirectly brought the details of the attempt to the attention of the catalogs and philatelic publications, and at least one warning has already appeared in the press (Linn's of April 13) cautioning collectors not to buy the stamps until further clarification of their status is forthcoming from the Middle East.

The writer is a proposent of the control of the control of their status is a proposent of the control of their status.

The writer is a permanent resident of Yemen and in close contact with the Post Office, and neither he nor the department ever heard anything about the stamps until the outcry by the New York dealers brought it to our attention.

it to our attention.

Knowing that the Ministry of Communications was not accurately advised on this matter from an ethical philatelic viewpoint, but that it may wish to salvage something from this wholesale mutilation of its old stamp stock, the following letter is being sent to it as a covering piece to a detailed discussion, point by point, of all the matters at issue, by the writer. Proper names of the parties mentioned therein are withheld for obvious reasons.

Letter To Ministry

His Excellency the Minister of Communications, Mutawakelite Kingdom of Yemen

Your Excellency:

Numerous letters of protest against unethical philatelic practices attributed to the Yemen Post Office because of the claims and actions of Mr. ______ in connection with recent Yemen stamp is such have begun to reach the philateria. sues have begun to reach the philatelic press.

monopolistic basis.

The principal world dealers have protested that they will not submit to this and that stamps issued under these circumstances are not bonafide stamps. This means that they will not be recognized by the stamp catalog publishers and will have no market value. By being overprinted in this manner they have already lost their original value as legitimate Yemen stamps.

Proposed Ethical Solution

There is only one way in which these stamps can be accepted and recognized, and the prospective loss recovered by the Yemen Post Office.

recognized, and the prospective loss recovered by the Yemen Post Office. If Your Excellency will order the entire quantity, without exception (10,000 sets of the stamps overprinted for "Human Rights", "40th Anniversary of First Yemen Stamp", "Automatic Telephone, Sana a", "11th Anniversary of King Ahmed", and 1959 "Airmails", and 8,000 sets of 1958 "Airmails") sent to the Yemen Post Office for bona fide sale and use in Yemen, and for philatelic sales on an equal basis to all interested dealers, of at least 50 per cent of the stock, on the first day of issue of each set, it is possible that the entire quantity may be used and sold, at considerable profit to the Post Office.

The sale of the 50 per cent reserved for philately alone will more than pay for the printing costs and a handsome profit for the Post Office, as those stamps will generally not have to perform any postal service.

The UAR Post Office in Cairo has vice.

The UAR Post Office in Cairo has found that by instituting the method mentioned above, greater quanties of Egyptian and Syrian stamps are being sold each year to philatelists, bringing an increasing profit and great prestige to the Arab cause. This was achieved after the UAR Ministry of Communications took steps to stop Mr.—and those who collaborated with him from doing what is now being attempted with Yemen's stamps, as these practices were destroying interest in Syrian stamps.

Now he seeks to inflict the same difficulties on Yemen, but by the methods he is using, it is possible that he may only succeed in killing all interest in the buying and collecting of Yemen stamps. In particular, the Yemen Post Office may suffer a considerable loss in connection with his announced overprinting of certain old issues to sell on a monopolistic basis.

The principal world dealers have protested that they will not submit to this and that stamps issued under these circumstances are not bonafide stamps. This means that increasing basis.

The details of these matters are explained in the attached appendices, but Your Excellency's quick action in the matter of saving the present overprinted stamps from total loss of value by investigating the matter and taking any corrective action which might seem appropriate is of the greatest urgency. I am sure that the UAR Philatelic Office would be most cooperative and helpwould be most cooperative and helpful in this matter should Your Excellency care to request their assistance and advice.

Respectfully yours,

(Signed) Conde

"Wait and See" — If the Ministry should decide to take over and issue in the regular way the overprinted stock, even though it does not contain the most needed values for local use, and to bring to Yemen and issue in the regular manner all subsequent commemorative and definitive issues, this writer will immediately advise the philatelic public, through this paper, of the bona fide nature of such stamps.

Until such a time as corrective action may be taken, however, he does not feel that postal paper "issued" under the monopolistic control of Mr. "X" outside of Yemen, meets the generally accepted definition of "postage stamps", and he is of the opinion that such adhesives will not merit catalog recognition, and therefore will have no market value.

News From The Three Germanies

R. Y. Megan

One for the blacklist

There are times when I can almost sense the reaction from East Germany to certain West Berlin stamp issues. These, though few and far between, are nevertheless mostly inspired by political considera-tions — and in Berlin a political consideration means one aimed against the Eastern regime.

It is the only German territory to have several of its postwar issues banned by the stamp bosses of the D.D.R. Without recapitulating in de-

D.D.R. Without recapitulating in detail, an examination of Berlin stamps released since 1948 shows that anti-Eastern, or at least provocatively pro-Western stamps have appeared quite frequently.

Thus releases which are either camouflaged under neutral descriptions or not illustrated (quite apart from those emissions which can only be detected by an interrupted sequence of catalog numbers) must in-ly be detected by an interrupted sequence of catalog numbers) must include the three Liberty Bell sets of 1951 to 1954.

Also the E.R.P. single of 1950, the "June 17" pair of 1953, and the stamps honoring such personalities as Burgomasters Reuter and Suhr, and the camouflaged anti-Eastern terms for the 1956 Industrial Exstamps for the 1956 Industrial Ex-hibition and the East German Cultural Council.

It should here be explained that the former shows the radio station at Berlin-Nikolassee, which daily at broadcasts anti-Communist propa-ganda, whilst the latter stamp depicts the statue of Uta from Naumburg Cathedral, which is of course in the Russian Zone.

The original drawing for this stamp was inscribed with a legend recalling the meeting of the East German Cultural Council. This is a Western body which concerns itself with the damage inflicted on East German "Kultur" by the present masters of the "Democratic Republic".

was explained to me that the It was explained to me that the public mention of this body on stamps going into the Eastern Zone would lead to considerable trouble and eventual banning of mail carrying them. And the Berlin Post Office is anxious to preserve its working links with the D.D.R. postal administration.

In my opinion the forthcoming 25pf, value recording the 10th anniversary of the famous airlift will also be responsible for bitter memories and a dubious reception "over there". Artist Rudolf Gerhardt has drawn a pleasant design based on the well-known "Air Bridge Memori-al" outside Tempelhof Airport in Berlin, on which are superimposed silhouettes of aeroplanes coming and going.

official notice accompanying the advance photograph recalls that the stamps will honor those men who tirelessly flew in 2½ million tons of goods across the Soviet Zone tons of goods across the Soviet Zone in the course of a quarter of a milion flights. Released on May 12, these stamps were printed in the generous quantity of 5 million copies, which should ensure ample supplies for some time to come.

The rate is that of a simple airletter from Berlin to West Germany, but the stamps will not be available at the Federal Post Offices, although of course they will be valid for postage throughout the Federal Republic. At least the tradition of independent Berlin issues is thereby being continued and the possible forthing continued and the possible forth-coming status of West Berlin as a free city under United Nations auspices will certainly lend additional interest to this commemorative.

Alexander von Humboldt

One of Germany's best known scientists, the biographer and explorer Alexander von Humboldt, died a hun-dred years ago at the age of ninety. His name is, of course, perpetuated in several geographical locations which recall his travels in Asia America. Not surprisingly is being honored by all parts of Ger-

Berlin was to issue a commemorative on October 24 last year as part of the series "Famous Men in Berlin's iHstory" but postponed the release until May 6 in deference to the wishes of the Federal Post Office in Bonn. So now the stamps appear after a six months' delay, at the same time as a most handsome engraved single stamp from the Federal Post Office itself.

The portrait and lettering are the work of Herbert Kern who has on previous occasions contributed distinguished designs to German stamps. In general arrangement the new Humboldt stamp is not dissimilar to the 10pf. value released in 1955 for the death centenary of Carl Friedrich Gauss, mathematician and Berlin was to issue a commemoraboldt must not be confused with his brother, Wilhelm von Humboldt, (1767-1835), a distinguished states-man and philosopher who founded the University of Berlin and was honored with a 40pf. stamp in 1953. As long ago as 1950 the Demo-cratic Republic portrayed both the

As long ago as 1950 the Democratic Republic portrayed both the Humboldts on a set of ten stamps for the 250th anniversary of the Prussian Academy of Sciences, but the small oval designs did not make for good pictorial representations. For some obscure reason the Saar is to be left out of this pan-German celebration, but perhaps the reason is the recent release of two Saar stamps within a month.

Austrian Paper Changes

This is something for specialist collectors who are concerned with the minutiae of the hobby. About the middle of last year, the Austrian Post Office introduced a new, thinner white paper with improved gumming for use on its definitive series. No reason was ever given for ming for use on its definitive series. No reason was ever given for the changeover and its cause must be sought in the continuing technical improvements in the concentration. improvements in the papermaking industry.

The new paper however has added yet a further variation to the Austrian "Costumes" issue of 1948 and later. Some of these values are already known with two different finenesses of photogravure screen, namely 80 and 100 lines to the centimeter, respectively.

The new paper adds a third variant to the series, although not all denominations have been affected. According to my catalog the 5S. value was never issued from a fine screen cylinder, but I very much doubt whether this is the case, and we may certainly include it in the foregoing table.

Things to Read

Philatelic literature is as ample in Germany as elsewhere, and from the flood of new publications I would only like to select two for mention in this column. One is part IV of the "Neue Ganzsachen-Kata-log" the well-known catalog of postal stationery being published in sec-tions by the Berlin Postal Stationery

Collectors' Assn.

The present volume of 64 pages is available from Messrs. Werner Hauenstein, Berlin N.65, Mullerstrasse 74a, who will advise U. S. readers as to price. Taken by itself, this section covering Germany 1919-1945 and part of the AMG stationery of 1945 and later, should be completed by the preceding three volumes. Subscriptions to the whole work should be placed with the publishers as above. above.

The catalog contains some interesting information. For instance, it may not be generally known that of the numerous items of private pos-tal stationery issued about 1940, the type impressed with an ornamental 6pf. stamp showing the cypher against a posthorn was available only to those organizations which could prove that part of the proceeds of sale were paid into the notorious "Fuhrer's Culture Fund".

Other items had to content themselves with a profile of Hitler himself; I must therefore assume that the donations to the Culture Fund was to absolve the collector from was to absolve the collector from the donations to the Culture Fund was to absolve the collector from seeing once again the noble delineation of his Chosen Leader's face!

The other book I would like to mention is the "Catalog of Sport Philately" by Dr. G. Schmidt and G. Schneider published by the Ihl Verlag, Coburg, P. O. Box 583, at $3. In 300 pages the authors have covered all the world's sports stamps with plentiful illustrations and virtually complete tabulations of the main results of the Olympic Games and other principal sporting events philatelically covered.
They have cast their net widely, as they include the Australian "Encircling the Earth" flights and a number of other airmail stamps which do not appear to be particularly connected with sport as such. This is nevertheless one of the best catalogs yet to appear in this field, and it should be warmly recom-

MANITOBA

"Americans east and west are a sunset people. From the Atlantic seaboard, over the Appalachians, through the wooded valleys, past the flatlands, on to the high plains, the Rockies and the Pacific, there goes our course, and somewhere along the western way lies heart's desire."

Thus begins A B. Guthrie's masterly essay on the subject of the West in a cut issue of LIFE magazine, and needless to say the restless urge to the t was not restricted to only those Americans living within the borders of United States of America.

west was not restricted to only those Americans living within the borders of the United States of America.

There are exciting and varied philatelic maementos of the great nineteenth century westward drive, but strangely enough very little was of an official nature. The Pony riders and the Wells Fargo Express stamps were the result of private initiative. The stamps the advonturers used on their mail to the east, came with them from the east. In far off Vancouver Island and British Columbia separate stamps were used, yet they were tinged with colonialism, their design and origin far removed from the spirit of the West.

Only in the northwest, in a newly formed Province that arose amidst strife and disorder, there began to appear in the 1870's the first official government stamps, entirely western in their nature. Events to the south of this province hastened their birth; the James boys, the Dalton Gang, Wild Bill Hickock, Wyatt Earp, all the desperados and their equally desperad hunters, even unfortunate General Custer; all of these people influenced in some degree the stamps that began to appear in the Province of

MANITOBA.

These were the famous Manitoba Law Stamps. They lasted for some 34 years and in that period they truly reflected the amazing growth of the West. And there is a lesson here for those stamp collectore constantly carping about "frequent unnecessary issues." Without the slightest philatelic pressure or influence, events themselves forced the provincial stamp issuing authorities to change and revise their stamps until by the time they finally quit, the one basic design first chosen had grown in a brief 24 years to no less than 118 major varieties!

These 114 varieties are now widely scattered all over the world, many of them unrecognized for the truly great rarities that they are. A very happy situation for the informed collector.

The information is available. We have just published the Manitoba Law Stamps Catalogue. The illustrated section shows all 114 varieties in full color. A check list prices all major and minor varieties. Still another section of 32 superlative crisp card pages provides spaces on which to mount all the varieties.

A seal has been released as usual and plans are progressing fast on this event. There quite likely will be a good attendance, since many will make, a combination trip out of the event, taking in the Florida sights and the convention.

If you are interested in precanceled stamps and are not a member of the PSS you will be welcome just the same to come and see the exhibit and take in the bourse. Make your plans accordingly.

Stamp Activity On Spanish Front

The principal news of concern from this area, as reported by Carlos Lenze, Barquillo 29, Madrid, Spain, is that the internal mail rate will soon be raised from a basic figure of 80c to 1 Peso. Also, on June 1 the annual child welfare sets for Spanish Guinea, Ifni and Sahara are expected to appear. Mr. Lenze offers background material on recent issues and cachets as follows:

The famous sanctuary "de la Cabeza" (of the head) in Andujar, Jaen, is located on the highest point of the Sierra Morena. It houses the "Madonna de la Cabeza" which appeared in 1227 and remains one of the most venerated sacred objects of the Andalusian area.

During the Civil War the entire area fell into the hands of the Republicans. The monastery was occupied and the monks imprisoned or killed. Oddly enough, after the pillage the Madonna with all the decorations and jewels remained untouched; the soldiers had retained their respect for the sacred objects.

In a later time the site was con-

In a later time the site was converted into a stronghold by Capt. Cartes, where he and a small force held out for eight and a half months against vastly superior numbers. He died defending the place, and he and others are now buried in the crypt of the newly erected monastery and sanctuary. This is today one of the most popular pilgrimage attractions in Spain. in Spain.

A special cachet was used at Barcelona March 22-25 for the III Exhibition of Missions Stamps, and a second one appeared there April 24-28 to note the Catalonian Castles exhibition. A third is being employed May 1-15, also at Barcelona, for a local stamp show being held in the quarter of Pueblonuevo.

On schedule for future events is one for the philatelic exhibition at Soller, Mallorca June 4-8. A second one will note a similar event at Tortosa September 6-10.
